Gateways To Transformation, LLC Presents the Phoenix Rising Eco-Therapy with Equine Therapy and Coaching Certification Available

Our goal for this work is to help educate, promote, and support all levels of professionals to become proficient in ... Ecotherapy and learning and authentic "equine-assisted" work which honors and integrates your natural intelligence and ability to grow into your next best self or help heal your issues by working with horses as co-therapists and bring that carry you into other areas of ecotherapy to integrate this into your session work.

Gateways to Transformation Level One Ecotherapy Equine Assisted Learning (EAL) Certification - Five-day class. $2,000.00 plus 100.00 a day for onsite housing while doing program.

- An overview of ecotherapy or ecolearning and how it fits into that group of therapies or learning skills successfully.
 - Ecotherapy and ecolearning includes experiential sessions in the areas of
 - Equine and animal assisted therapy
 - Somatic Ecotherapy
 - EcoArt Therapy
 - Energy Psychology Therapy
 - Outdoor Wilderness and Adventure Therapy
- What Equine Assisted Learning (EAL) is and how it can help you in doing learning situations experientially for the growth of your client or clients.
- What are you looking at working with doing EAL sessions in your own work?
 - Growth and learning i.e., moving yourself forward towards your next steps in how you want your life or your next steps at work to go. Sample issues to work with.
 - Starting a business
 - Graduating from college and moving successfully into being an adult
 - Learning how to have a successful relationship
 - Risk and growth in any area
 - Specific issues - Sample issues to work with.
 - being stuck in your process
 - Working with others to accomplish your goals successfully
 - Communication
 - etc.
- From the Horses viewpoint - Whether you have worked all your life with horses or you have never worked with horses before, if you are trying to interpret what you are seeing in a session and you have not learned to communicate fully with the horses doing the session, you are at a disadvantage and not really utilizing this type of potential. Learning what horses are telling you in sessions, not just what your clients are telling or showing you leaves you with only half the information you need.
 - Understanding your horse - How horses communicate - body language and energy
- How to evaluate the whole situation happening in the arena and utilize the experiential component to move your client forward towards what they are trying to accomplish:
- Out in the arena as a client and a therapist - Practice -
 - what did you learn doing the session and what did you learn watching others in a session.
